

AT FAMILY DAY... A part of the 23,000 people who attended the Northrop Corp.'s Family Day last Sunday are pictured during welcoming remarks by Richard R. Nolan, vice president and general manager of the firm. The families toured the aerospace plant and saw a number of displays prepared by the employees. A feature of the day was the fly-over by the Northrop T-38 jet trainer.

Families to Host Group Of Students

More than 20 families from the area will act as hosts to a group of Japanese students who will arrive on July 22. The students have been in the United States for the past year under the American Field Service program.

The students, who have attended schools across the nation, are touring the United States prior to returning to their homelands. There are 134 in the group, and 20 of them will spend a few days in this area.

Torrance families who will assist in providing homes and tours in the area for the two-day visit include: Messrs. and Mrs. William Herrmann, Robert Brigham, Argyle Prescott, Merle Coffee, Robert Kulp, Wayne Kleayer, and Robert Ducommun.

Others are the Robert Andersons, Al Klenpans, George Crabtree, David Jehebers, Kazumasa Hayakawas, Stanley Roberts, and M. Bartholomews.

Auditions Scheduled

Auditions for the forthcoming Drawing Room Theater production of "The Drunkard" will be held beginning Sunday, July 21, at the theater, 2304 Artesia Blvd. Auditions will continue through Tuesday of next week.

The auditions will begin at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, and at 7:30 p.m. Monday and Tuesday. Parts are available for 14 persons, including one part for a nine-year-old girl.

The play is being restaged after many requests from people who saw the original production. Charles Rothlein, resident director of the Drawing Room Theater, produced the first play, but he is currently directing the Bay Cities Theater Assn. production of "Finian's Rainbow."

Ken Lee of El Segundo will direct the current production.

Channel Bids To Be Opened
Bids for another section of the 18-mile Dominguez Channel flood control project are scheduled to be opened tomorrow by the County Board of Supervisors.

The estimated cost of the link is $3.8 million. Plans call for construction of the channel from Wilmington Avenue to Avalon Boulevard. More than a mile and a half of the channel will be built.

Del Amo East Development Opens Soon

Furniture and belongings are currently being moved into apartments at Del Amo East as residents prepare to move into the recently completed units. The development is located at Madrona Avenue and Carson Street.

About 80 units are now available for occupancy in the cooperative apartment venture, and an additional 220 are planned. A total of 300 units will be open when all construction is finished.

While the residents of the first section are moving in, landscaping around the new buildings will be completed. Other units are now under construction, or in the planning stage.

The development was pre-sold on a cooperative basis. A furnished model is open on the construction site and some units are available.
